The Marlinton Presbyterian church will be dedicated on Sunday October 8.

Dr. and Mrs. Young have returned from a visit to friends in Ligonier, Indiana.

E. M. Smith who has recently moved back to Edray, is at Renick this week on business.

H. S. Gilbert, of Rockbridge, who has been visiting his son, H. L. Gilbert, has returned home.

Mrs. Embry Shinberry and daughter, Miss Bessie, of Cloverlick, were callers at this office Tuesday.

Mrs. J. B. Sutton and son of Greenbank, are visitors at the home of U. S. Gilmore, at Woodrow.

Rev. George P. Moore attended the Greenbank District Sunday School convention at Wintburn last Saturday and Sunday.

Rev. G. Brimlow, of New Martinsville, a former pastor on the Huntersville circuit, with his wife and child, is visiting his friends in the county.

Mrs. Jennie Wade and little Edna Wade returned on yesterday from Rockbridge county, Va. where they had been called by the serious illness of Miss Mary Paterson.

Rev. G. W. Nickell, for eight years pastor of the Marlinton Presbyterian church, was here Tuesday greeting old friends. He went to Westminster to begin a series of meetings.

Mrs. Fred Leonard and little son, of Waynesboro, Virginia, are guests at the homes of F. R. Hunter and A. P. Edgar. Many persons will remember Mrs. Leonard as Miss Edna Coyner, a niece of J. J. and L. T. Coyner of Cloverlick.

The public school at Campbell town will give an ice cream supper Saturday September 30, 1916, at the school building for the benefit of the school—to buy needed supplies. Everybody invited.

O. T. Reynolds of New York, is visiting his mother, Mrs. Hubert Echols.

Mrs. J. H. Brown, of Renick, was here yesterday to attend the Kincaid-Sullivan wedding.

Henry Hoover, of Staunton, is here to spend the winter with his son, J. A. Hoover.

J. L. Baxter, agent, has received a car load of 1917 model Ford cars, the first lot of this model to be shipped him.

Mrs. Uriah Hevener, of Arbovale, is here this week, the guest of her nephew, P. L. Dysard.—Richwood Republican.

J. B. Garvey, who was tavern keeper at Huntersville for a number of years following the war, is visiting his sister, Mrs. Mary Sullivan.

Charles Combs, who has been very sick with appendicitis, was operated on at the Marlinton Hospital Tuesday, and is making a good recovery.

Mrs. Woodyard, superintendent of nurses at the Marlinton Hospital, is attending the meeting of the State Nurses Association at Martinsburg this week.

Ligon Price is down from Durnmore today and brought with him a specimen of his art as a taxidermist, a finely mounted horned owl. It is on exhibition at this office.

Richard Sullivan was hurt about the back in a wreck on the log train at Buckeye Monday morning. A truck was derailed and a log rolled over him, but he is not dangerously injured.

James Prine, after an absence of a few months, is back home in the county jail. He was serving a year's sentence, and ran off from the road gang. He ventured back to Durbin, and was sent down to jail to finish out his term and some more for running off.

The third annual stock sale at Hillsboro on Tuesday of this week was largely attended and very successful. The horses were sold and brought a good price. A feature was the sale of a lot of registered Hereford cattle from the farm of Richard Callison and his son, Denny Callison. All these cattle were sold to Pocahontas people, and the price was very reasonable, considering the high quality of the animals.

THE CORNWELL MEETINGS

THE FAVORITE FOR GOVERNOR SPEAKS TWICE IN THE COUNTY

Hon. John J. Cornwell held two good meetings in Pocahontas this week, speaking at the theater in Marlinton at two o'clock Wednesday, and at Cass that night. He was well received here, his audiences being about evenly divided between the two political parties.

He was accompanied by Hon. Chas. Wilson, the nominee for Secretary of State, who also spoke. Mr. Wilson is a successful business man of Huntington, who has achieved great popularity in the State. He is the kind of man you would naturally call Charley and for whom one can vote cheerfully.

Pocahontas people are getting well acquainted with Cornwell and he has a following here such as any public man would have reason to be proud of.

His speech was devoted mainly to West Virginia affairs showing that a change at this time would be a mighty healthy thing for the State. He recalled the fact that the Republicans had tried to clear out the machine and cleanse the commonwealth in their own party and that after really nominating their man were deprived of the fruits of their victory by an abnormal vote in McDowell county.

This was a subject that the speaker could discuss with a good deal of feeling as he was declared defeated for Governor in 1904 by such voting in some of the southern counties.

That was the year that Cornwell carried Kanawha county by a good majority, and the adjoining county of Fayette reported a majority of about forty-four hundred against him, which in the light of later events is generally considered to have been wholly fictitious. If Cornwell and the Lilly man have nothing else in common, they have all been shot with the same bullet.

Cornwell reminded his hearers that under all the arguments advanced by the Republicans within the memory man that the unprecedented prosperity of the nation at this time should insure the continuation in office of the present administration.

The signs all point to Cornwell's election this fall. Even such strong Republican states as Pennsylvania and Ohio, on our borders, have from time to time been confronted with just such situations in state affairs as now confronts West Virginia and they found it necessary to make a change. We know of nothing that would help the rank and file of the Republican party in West Virginia more than to retire the present set of office holders and let all Republicans start even once more.

Married, at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. Mary Sullivan, on Lower Camden avenue, Wednesday morning, September 27, 1916, H. C. Kincaid and Miss Nora Sullivan, the Rev. DeLadd, of Ronceverte, officiating. A few friends and relatives were present. The groom is a well known young business man of Marlinton, and the bride is the youngest daughter of Mrs. Mary Sullivan. For a number of years she has had a position in the County Clerk's office. Mr. and Mrs. Kincaid are now on an automobile trip through Virginia. Our best wishes are extended.

Today is Rosh Hashona, the Jewish New year 5677, dating from the giving of the law to Moses on Mt. Sinai. It is a day of joy and feasting and is observed as a holiday by strict Jews the world over. A week later comes Yom Kippur, the day of atonement, which is to be spent in fasting and prayer. This was the day when the Jews were a nation and they gathered in Jerusalem for prayer.

Louise Coyner, the little six-year old daughter of J. J. Coyner, of Cloverlick, was badly burned last Wednesday. The child was playing with a celluloid eye shade and it got on fire by some unknown means and very grave injuries resulted. Dr. N. R. Price was phoned for and dressed the injuries. Much sympathy has been expressed for this attractive child and the family.

Isaac Barlow sold 31 head of three year old cattle off his Browns Mountain place to W. C. Householder which averaged 1478 1-2 pounds. These cattle were wintered on ensilage by Mr. Barlow.

TO THE VOTERS

Since I was nominated for the office of Sheriff, I have received several inquiries as to who would be my deputies if I am elected in November, and I take this means to inform the voters. H. E. White, of Durbin, will do the work in the Greenbank district; Tom McNeel in the Levels district, and I will have charge of the Edray and Huntersville districts. W. A. Eskridge, of Marlinton, will be my jailor. I have not selected my office man, but he will be a competent man, capable of doing the work in a business like manner.

And as you all know that I am a farmer and during the next six weeks is the farmer's busiest season, it will be impossible for me to see all the voters of the county in person, so I desire to say to all of you that I will appreciate any and all the support that you can give me, and if elected I promise to give the duties of the office my very best attention. Respectfully yours, E. F. McLaughlin.

A NARROW ESCAPE

George H. Waugh is in the Marlinton Hospital with a badly broken and unsharpened arm, a bruised thigh and many other minor injuries, received in an accident on the Greenbrier, Cheat and Elk Railroad, on Elk River, below Slaty Fork last Friday morning. He was a member of Adam Baxters surveying corps and was in the camp car preparing dinner for the other men. In the end of the car was a door, and a flight of wooden steps went to the ground. He was standing in this door, when the car was struck by a string of cars which had been "kicked" into the siding by a train crew making a flying switch. So fast were these cars going and with such force did they strike the camp cars that Mr. Waugh was thrown at least ten feet from the car. He fell across the rails, but with rare presence of mind he rolled off the rails before the wheels caught him. However, he was run over by the steps and trucks.

Mr. Waugh brought to the Marlinton Hospital. He is badly mangled and bruised, and the most serious injury is to his left forearm. This arm is also badly cut above the elbow. The physicians are in hopes that they can save this arm and that he will eventually regain the use of it to a large extent.

Mr. Waugh is a son of the late Levi Waugh of Edray. His many friends over the county will be glad to hear of his escape from such a perilous situation.

Word has been received of the death of J. Harris Adkison, which occurred at his home at Mt. Clare, Harrison county, after a few days illness of pneumonia. Mr. Adkison was a native of Pocahontas county, the youngest son of Daniel Adkison, and a brother of the late John E. Adkison. He was not far from 87 years of age. About the time of the civil war he went to Harrison county and he has since made that his home. His last visit here was about ten years ago. Mr. Adkison is survived by his wife, who is a sister of George McKeever of Swago, and their five children, James and Oscar, Ollie, Minnie and Ira. Mr. Adkison was a good citizen, a christian gentleman, and his death was a peaceful as his life had been.

Last Saturday was a big day at Minnehaha Springs. There was a fairly large crowd, the Marlinton band was there, a number of athletic events featured and a good dinner was served. About $100 was realized which will go to reduce the debt on the parsonage property. Major Randolph Stalaker was a making spirit during the day. He has offered $20 to the boy making the most corn to an acre in Huntersville district next season. In the evening a dance was given at the club house.

The Alexander Amusement Parlors have added as an attraction a very fine swimming pool, which opened Wednesday night. The pool is about 60 feet long by 20 broad, from two to six feet deep, and the water is from the flowing salt sulphur well. The swimming is fine and without doubt the mineral water has a medicinal value.
